

CROSSROADS

COUNSELING AND CONSULTATION

Consent for Treatment

- Counseling Services: The therapeutic process is different for everyone and is individualized for each. For some, issues are quickly resolved. For others, the time it takes to get relief can be slow, painful, and frustrating. Results are not guaranteed and there may be times that clients may leave the session feeling worse than when they arrived. It is the commitment of the counselor to be a trustworthy, professional, and objective person that the client can gain assistance from in order to work through personal struggles. The client is responsible for following through on necessary changes and completing tasks in order to reach desired goals established in the counseling process.
